Don't Ask Me Why

Crossfade

I know
Even if I worry
Even if I canâ€™t see
The sense in this madness
How am I to know?
In a million years
This is something that I know
This is something that Iâ€™ll always feel
And I donâ€™t wanna live without your love
â€™Cause somethingâ€™s missinâ€™ when youâ€™re gone
Iâ€™ll ï¬•nd a way back to your heart
In a world full of darkness
You were my light
Open up your heart
Donâ€™t ask me why
Some things never change
In a million years
Donâ€™t ask me why
The colours fade away when youâ€™re not there
When you open your eyes
Iâ€™ll be there right by your side
You tell me to let go
Dreaming of new horizons
Things you wanna do
You know, it ainâ€™t easy
â€™Cause somethingâ€™s missinâ€™ when youâ€™re gone
Iâ€™ll ï¬•nd a way back to your heart
In a world full of darkness
You were my light
Open up your heart
Donâ€™t ask me why
Some things never change
In a million years
Donâ€™t ask me why
The colours fade away when youâ€™re not there
Donâ€™t ask me why
Some things never change
In a million years
When you open your eyes

Iâ€™ll be there right by your side
Lost and confused
Since the day you walked away
Leaving me in doubt and all alone
And you say you need your freedom
But love will set you free
Just look into my eyes and you will see
That itâ€™s never too late
No itâ€™s never too late
I still love you, baby
I just want you to know
