

Bring Back the Love (Alan Ripley Remix)

Mike Candys

My tears ran dry when you said goodbye
Yeah, almost cried an ocean
And sleepless nights feeling dead inside
'Cause you've torn my heart wide open You're like an angel
Without the halo
You give and take it away But I'm still faithful, I'm on my knees and I pray Baby, won't you bring back the,
bring back the, bring back the love
Baby, won't you bring back the,
bring back the, bring back the love I'm dying, won't you Girl, set me free, you're all I need Never gonna give up So baby, won't you bring back the,
bring back the, bring back the love
Baby, won't you bring back the,
bring back the, bring back the love
