My eyes keep going to that white face
Why donâ€™t I even get sick of you?

When you slightly smile at me, I really go crazy
How can you be so pretty baby?

How can I explain this feeling?
When I see you, my heart becomes numb and sore

Oh, with what word can I explain you?
All the words of the world is probably not enough

With those legs that are so pretty by just standing still
You walk toward me and you hug me

You know heâ€™s so beautiful
Maybe you will never know
I want to hide you in my embrace

Iâ€™m not saying this out of a young heart
But I really want to marry you

Oh, with what word can I explain you?
All the words of the world is probably not enough

With those legs that are so pretty by just standing still
You walk toward me and you hug me

Telling you multiple times is not enough
With this tickling voice that only knows you
I will sing for you

My heart keeps going to you
Iâ€™m really going crazy
