

Isolation

Iggy Pop

Needed you, you were only using
Needing you just tore me down
Here I stand in isolation
Feeling emptiness and doubt Walking down the broken highway
Sucking sugar plain and sweet
Did your mother ever tell you
That the joyful are the free? I need some lovin' like an inmate needs a dime
I need some lovin' like a poet needs a rhyme Here I stand in isolation
My empty hands in isolation Walking down the broken highway
Sucking sugar 'cause it's my way
Find me one heart to complete with
Heading for the farthest reaches I need some lovin' like a body needs a soul
I need some lovin' like a fastball needs control Here I stand in isolation
My empty hands in isolation Strike up the band in this proud land
Got a lot to do
Got a lot to say
Got a life to live
Got a lot to do
Got a lot to say
Got a life to live
Here I stand in isolation
