

Why I Can't Stand One Night Stands

Catatonia

You're adamant
So loose limbed I give in
Although your bed is warm
The worn springs they creak of regret And lust is the thief who steals away
While we were sleeping
Now you're doing my head in The lines, the blinds are drawn
We are intimate strangers
I'm reborn, it's a false dawn
Where we've been? I forget And Saturday's fuss is just small town lust
It's me I'm cheating
Now you're doing my head in And Saturday's fuss is just small town lust
It's me I'm cheating
Now you're doing my head in Now you're doing my head in
