

You've Got Love (Remastered)

Shooting Star

Been down and depressed, my body's aching
Trembling hands, cold feet and shaking knees
But people say that nothing was wrong
Except I've been in love too long
I've gotta find a woman who knows how to care for me
And baby, now you've got, you've got what I need
Yeah, yeah, you've got, you've got what I need, oh
I used to laugh when I heard no man was an island
Never believed two heads were better than one
But now I've had a change of heart
But nothing's going to keep us apart
I've gotta find a woman who knows how to care for me
And baby now you've got, you've got what I need
Yeah, yeah, you've got, you've got what I need, oh
Yeah, girl, you look so fine
Thank God, I changed my mind
Can't wait to see what I find in you
You've got, you've got what I need
You've got, you've got what I need, ooh, yeah
You've got, you've got what I need, baby, now you've got it
You've got, you've got what I need, ooh, yeah
You've got, you've got what I need
You've got, you've got what I need, yeah, yeah
You've got, you've got what I need
You've got, you've got what I need
You've got, you've got what I need
