

Heavy Flowers

Blaudzun

Early morning
Summer dew
Yellow empress
What 's life to youBe my downfall, shattered sun
Heavy flowers, we becomeCut the grey ropes
That keep me tied
Through your cheek holes
We'll watch the nightBe my downfall, shattered sun
Heavy flowersThese dying hours
Heavy flowersWe rise, we fall, spill the wine
Lets break our hearts and dance tonight
Sing it like you never sung beforeTell the girls and tell the gents
No more need now to pretend
Sing it like you never sung beforeBe my downfall, shattered sun
Heavy flowers, we becomeThese dying hours, heavy flowers
Light my day, light my way
