

Maria

Steven Curtis Chapman

Maria, she's too young to understand
But old enough to feel the pain
Of living where no love can grow
With no hope for change Maria, her world is an angry place
But she makes sure that scars don't show
And with every hurt
Her tender heart is growing cold Who, who's gonna love Maria
Who, who's gonna touch her
With the tenderness she longs for
Like a desert longs for rain She's got a hunger deep inside
With every tear she cries
She wonders if there's
Someone out there, somewhere
Who's gonna love Maria She looks in the mirror now
And the little girl is gone
But still the search for
Someone's love goes on and on for Maria But does anybody care
Or even notice her at all
Is anyone listening close enough
To hear her call And who, who's gonna love Maria
Who, who's gonna touch her
With the tenderness she longs for
Like a desert longs for rain She's got a hunger deep inside
And with every tear she cries
She wonders if there's someone out there Maria if you can hear me
Please know that you're not forgotten
Somebody's trying to get to you Who's gonna love Maria
Who, who's gonna touch her
With the tenderness she longs for
Like a desert longs for rain She's got a hunger deep inside
And with every tear she cries
She wonders if there's
Someone out there, somewhere
Who's gonna love Maria Maria there's someone out there
Who's gonna love Maria
And who's gonna take her time to hear her calling
And wipe away the tears that falling for Maria
Who's gonna love Maria
