Texas

Tami Neilson

i've got a touch that lingers on my fingers i've got a kiss for lips so sweet and true i've got a love, a love the size of texas beating in my heart for only youi want to hold you honey baby i want to rock you through the night i want to squeeze you honey baby won't you let me squeeze you tighti've got a touch that lingers on my fingers
i've got a kiss for lips so sweet and true
beating in my heart for only youi want to kiss you honey baby won't you let me have a taste i've got about a million kisses they would be a shame to wastei've got a touch that lingers on my fingers
i've got a kiss for lips so sweet and true
beating in my heart for only youi've got a love, a love the size of texas beating in my heart for only you
