Cannot Help Myself

Carleigh Conant

When I think about you
I get so caught up
And every other thought just seems to slip right out of my head

And when I see you smile
And I look into your eyes
All of my worries and fears simply disappear

Ooh you have stolen
You have stolen my heart
Now youâ€™ve got me singing
And I cannot help myself
Iâ€™m thinking about you all of the time

And I know what we have Itâ€™s hard to come by
Oh itâ€™s takes work, and it takes time
But itâ€™s worth every moment

When I dream about our future
And what it will hold
All I know is itâ€™s just gonna get better
From here

Ooh you have stolen
You have stolen my heart
Now youâ€™ve got me singing
And I cannot help myself
Iâ€™m thinking about you all of the time

Cuz you are the one that is on my mind
You are the one, oh yes you are the one
You are the one that is on my mind
You are the one, oh yes you are the one (repeat)

Cuz you have stolen
You have stolen my heart
Now youâ€™ve got me singing

And I cannot help myself Iâ€™m thinking about you
I cannot help myself Iâ€™m thinking about you
I cannot help myself Iâ€™m thinking about you, all of the time
