

One More Cup Of Coffee

Robert Plant

Your breath is sweet
Your eyes are like two jewels in the sky
Your back is straight, your hair is smooth
On the pillow where you lie I don't sense affection
No gratitude or love
Your loyalty is not to me
But to the stars above One more cup of coffee for the road
One more cup of coffee 'fore I go
To the valley below Your daddy, he's an outlaw
A wanderer by trade
He'll teach you how to pick and choose
And how to throw the blade He oversees his kingdom
No stranger dare intrude
His voice, it trembles as he calls
For another plate of food One more cup of coffee for the road
One more cup of coffee 'fore I go
To the valley below One more cup of coffee for the road
One more cup of coffee 'fore I go
To the valley below Your sister sees the future
Like your mama and yourself
You've never learned to read or write
There's no books upon your shelf Your pleasure knows no limits
Your voice is like a lark
But your heart is like an ocean
Mysterious and dark One more cup of coffee for the road
One more cup of coffee 'fore I go
To the valley below One more cup of coffee for the road
One more cup of coffee 'fore I go
To the valley below
Oh, to the valley below
