Weak In The Knees

Eva Avila

Feels like I'm back in fifth grade
Day dreaming 'bout when you'd ask me to come and play
But you never do, you sit so far away
You don't even notice the heart I drew around your name,
I know it's crazy, I feel like a fool
'Cause every time you walk into the room, I always miss my cue(Chorus:)
I want to know if someone turns you on at night
I want to know if it could be me
I got to know how to make you see
That you've got me weak in the knees
Feels like I never learned to speak
Every time I think to ask how was your week-end
So I never do, I just hope to be seen
But I casually cross your path
While tripping over my feet
I know it's crazy, I ain't gonna lie
But every time that you give me a sign
Oh I always miss my line.(Chorus:)
I want to know if someone turns you on at night
I want to know if it could be me
I got to know how to make you see
That you've got me weak in the knees
Oh you don't even know it
No...
There's a table for two
For me and you
Though it's so hard to show it
Oh...
When I give you no clueEvery day after day,
I been thinking of what I can say
To get through to you
Wish I could read your mind
So that I could find
If you're feelin' me too(Chorus:)
I want to know if someone turns you on at night
I want to know if it could be me

I got to know how to make you see
That you've got me weak in the knees(Chorus:)
I want to know if someone turns you on at night
I want to know if, I want to know, I want to know
I got to know how to make you see
That you've got me weak in the knees
