13 Years

Stemm

I feel like I'm slipping away....I remember the days when I'd lay and cry, there was all this pain I used to wonder why
I was trapped in this and left to die.feeling so aloneI sit back and relive my life and all the times that I'd beg to die.
Of all these things I remember I was...feeling so aloneBut now I'm feeling stronger, since I found you.I'd grab the pin and take my flight, and you were there just to hold me tight.
All those times I'd just lose my mind...feeling so aloneI can't repay all the things you've done,
for the darkest nights when you were my sun,
because of you I no longer run.feeling so alone
But now I'm feeling stronger, since I found you.21 years pass am I still lost?
13 years passed with no remorse...I feel like I'm slipping away....
My blood boils through my eyes,
your blood stains my hands.
I could not control the urge to end you.
I could have killed, I should have killed you!
Erase my mind, all the years of hell you put me through.feeling so alone
But now I'm feeling stronger, since I found you.
I feel like I'm slipping away....
