

Before You Lie

Chely Wright

I think I know what you're about to say
I can see it in your eyes and on your face
We swore we never would
So, while the words are still unspoken
Don't you think you should Take a breath, take a moment
Take your time, before you lie
'Cause once you do love is different
Everything changes between you and I
And it gets easier every time
Oh and you can still change your mind before you lie All I ask of you is honesty
We said, That's how this love will always be
So careful what you say
Because it only takes a half a truth
To throw it all away Take a breath, take a moment
Take your time before you lie
'Cause once you do love is different
Everything changes between you and I
And it gets easier every time
Oh and you can still change your mind before you lie It's up to you
This can go either way
You get to choose
Which road we take So take a breath, take a moment
Take your time before you lie
'Cause once you do love is different
Everything changes between you and I
And it gets easier every time
Oh and you can still change your mind before you lie
Before you lie
Before you lie
