

Inspired Insanity

Phoebe Snow

Help yourself to my new clothes;
borrow some of my daydreams too
A few of them came true
... in color, too
What's that picture in your frame of mind?.. is it something I can help you find?
Oh, the stories I could tell,
but you don't listen well, my friend.
You ain't talked to me of late,
But don't you worry, I can wait
...againCome visit me, inspired insanity
Come visit me, inspired insanityYou're like my second childhood, Complete with all the mistakes I've made A party's overstayed, that's our charadeOne man's high, is just another's waste I'm only preaching 'cause I've had my taste
You can call me up,
When I call you, don't hang up the phoneIf something scares you in the mirror,
I will know that you're aloneCome visit me, inspired insanity Come visit me, inspired insanityWhile I'm speaking, I lose you Others pry at your key hole here
You told me you don't care, but you've changed your hairI feel pretty stubborn today,
I shrug my shoulders and I stay,
I stay
Logic doesn't work,
neither would a magic wand
If I turned and walked, right now, would you notice I had gone?But, if you agree Come and visit me,
Come visit me, inspired insanity
