

Hold On

Sean Paul

Hold on to the dream, hold on
Hold on now, now
Hold on and believe
Oh we already one, we still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
We still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
Hold on to the dream Finish line I'll see you there
I know you're well prepared
Put aside all your fears
Jah will answer all your prayers
Might seem that no one cares,
Been working hard for years
Keep climbing up the stairs
Gotta know that you already there
Blood, sweat and the tears now
None of them can take the shares now
Enemies better be aware now,
Champions's got a lot to bare now
I'ma tell it as I'ma swear now...
Eye of the tiger i got the stare now
Carry on until we see the sun,
We holding on Hold on to the dream, hold on
Hold on now, now
Hold on and believe
Oh we already one, we still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
We still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
Hold on to the dream I know the road is long we still hold on
We carry on, we still stay strong
Today is long but tomorrow will come
Hold on, hold on now, now
Cah the broken's now will be the strongest
All do yu kno is that the road is deep
Pain and trouble , trial and grief
What a man sow cah you one must reap
Hard times will never get you beat
And you never will get defeat

Cah mi all arm strong... concrete...to di work
Coz talk is cheapHold on to the dream, hold on
Hold on now, now
Hold on and believe
Oh we already one, we still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
We still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
Hold on to the dreamI know the road is long we still hold on
We carry on, we still stay strong
Today is long but tomorrow will come
Hold on now , Hold on now, now
Oho, oho, oho, oho, oho, ohoHold on
Hold on to the dream, hold on
Hold on now, now
Hold on and believe
Oh we already one, we still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
We still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
Hold on to the dream.I know the road is long we still hold on
We carry on, we still stay strong
Today is long but tomorrow will come
Hold on, hold on now, now
