

Condemned

Vicious Rumors

On a mountain road of stone
Preachers cry out all alone
Body in their blood runs thin
All the time he's cashing in
Long hours under the sun
Nothing left for anyone but him, oh no
Full power
Never enough
Sneak off
We're calling your bluff
Condemned forever
The quest to stay alive
Condemned forever
The one you have survived
Oh, the whole world laughs inside
All the country left to die
Men of the living dead
Don't believe a word he said
Long hours under the sun
Nothing left for anyone but him, oh no
Full power
Never enough
Stand up
And call your bluff
Condemned forever
The quest to stay alive
Condemned forever
The one who has survived
Condemned forever
What do you do nights
Condemned forever
Freedom is in sight
Yeah
Even in all his feeling high
He makes his way
Wanted knight
He only wants to wind up free
Oh, to hell with those miseries, oh yeah
Condemned forever

The quest to stay alive
Condemned forever
The one who has survived
Condemned forever
What do you do nights
Condemned forever
Freedom is in sight
