

My Pledge of Allegiance #1

After Forever

She kept her beauty [she kept her beauty concealed] concealed behind a curtain [behind a curtain of suspense] and endures her fate [and endures her fate] moulded by an ancient cultureThe honour wasn't allowed [the honour wasn't allowed] to be injured [to be injured]
she is going to live
she is going to live as her community expects her toI find myself confined, between furtive desires and feelings of guiltThese are my last words
I'm gonna leave you
I can't stand your narrow mindedness any longer forgive me...
