Supernova

The Echoing Green

I take a step to what's real or at least to what it is I'm chasing Another step to reveal
All the shadows that I keep embracingFailure forgets to fascinate this light inside will resonate shame dissipates with open eyes refreshing fate I can't describeThis time it feels like I've been touched by a Supernova
Inside - the Hand that touches hearts is touching mine
As I find my tears are all consumed by the Supernova this time the hope that lights the world
is in my eyesThere's a piece of my mind that tries to fathom the stars or to contemplate the divine don't need to look very far when You bring me the reasons just to believe You bring me answers
I can't concieve
How can I bring You doubt when You bring me the sky?This time it feels like I've been touched by a Supernova
Inside - the Hand that touches hearts
lights the world
is in my eyesThere's a light in my eyes The light of the Supernova glowing in my eyes Go Supernova.
