

Retaliation

Vomitory

Embraced replete with sinister wrath
Paralysed close to collapse
Consume everything into darkness
A world so unreal and dying

The last sense of purity
Crushed by the impulse to kill

A perverse possessed mind
In the art of torture and pain
Fantasy becomes reality
A massive inner pain

Last hours in reality
Senses sins long time gone
Far from salvation
Confused by the smell of blood

Punish to be punished
Justice for a mind in chaos
An unforgiving feeling
Surrounded by flesh and blood

The last sense of purity
Crushed by the impulse to kill

Through the mind of growing fear
Final moment of purity
Sadistic intent to kill
One final victim must die
