

I Believe In You

Joe

I never believed in dreaming, it never got me very far.
I never believed that love could find me, like an arrow through the heart.
I never believed in miracles, or building castles in the air.
Not until that day I found you, turned around and you were there.
From the day you came, you gave me, a whole new point of view.
I've been touched by an angel, it's impossible, but true. I believe in you.
I swear that forever from today, no one will ever take your place.

I believe in you.

And I believe our love will last always. I never believed in fairy tales, tho sometimes I wish I could,

I never believed that golden slippers could ever find the perfect foot.

I never believed in magic, or that wishes could come true,

But your very first kiss changed all this, something only you could do.

You made me a believer, you made me trust again,

You showed there's a pot of gold, at every rainbow's end. I believe in you.

I swear that forever from today, no one will ever take your place.

I believe in you.

And I believe our love will last always. Only love, sets you free,

And if you serve to fate, then you're my destiny.

Now I know, now I see.

Anything can happen, if you just believe. I believe in you.

I swear that forever from today, no one will ever take your place.

I believe in you.

And I believe our love will last always. I believe in you.

I swear that forever from today, no one will ever take your place.

I believe in you.

And I believe our love will last always. I believe in you.

I swear that forever from today, no one will ever take your place.

I believe in you.

And I believe our love will last always.
