Everything

Temperance

(H. Der Hovagimian)
Ya ha! Ya ha! Ya ha!
Within my mind I feel emotions twined
That could never be freed to a sedative state
I need aid leading to utopia
A place so ideal to make me chant
Do re me fa so la ti do
Tell me what you know 'cause I've got to go
To my new home after being tried
With the trials of life without the strife
With misfortune, with a notion
Of how to bring out the hush
Upon earth that is so luscious
Like my feelings so precious
But one day when I'm washed away
I hope to land on heaven that day
I'll be needing, needing one thing
Having you and that will be everything
Rising, decisions have been made in vain
And within my dreams, decisions have been made for everything
Everything I've seen
So let us call for attention, in this world of many decisions
With all this doubt from people so hopeless, (no ho) tell me how to mutate this
Deeds made without succession, in this world of many confusions
People driving so much hopelessness, EVERYTHING
Everything is everything
And all that matters makes up one thing
And that one thing is a term called life
And one demand of life is love
Chant-do re me fa so la ti do
Tell me what you know 'cause I've got to go
And form my generation
Such a powerful procreation
But-in this world of disarray
It's so rigid to make it the decent way
So let us strive and dissipate this misery
Try to hold back the intensity
But one day when I'm washed away

I hope to land on heaven that day
I'll be needing, needing one thing
Having you and that will be everything
Rising, decisions have been made in vain
And within my dreams, decisions have been made for everything
Everything I've seen
So let us call for attention, in this world of many decisions
With all this doubt from people so hopeless, (no-ho) tell me how to mutate this
Deeds made without succession, in this world of many confusions
People driving so much hopelessness, EVERYTHING
Oh-ho, ya-hey
Oh-ho, everything
Everything,
Everything, Ya ha! Ya ha! Ya ha!
Rising, decisions have been made in vain
And within my dreams, decisions have been made for everything
Everything I've seen,
Decisions have been made in vain
And within my dreams, decisions have been made for everything
Everything I've seen
