

All Cried Out

Gareth Gates

Tear drops in my eyes
Came every day with the sunrise
It's been that way as long as you've been gone
I thought the day would start
Same as the others falling apart
I thought I barely would be hanging on
Something's changed, feel so strange
Swimming through a notion of games
Then suddenly is the sun
Maybe I had enough of you
Maybe I been tired dreaming of you
Maybe I gotta know your goodbye by now
Baby, I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dried somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
All cried out
I don't know what it is
Why I'm not longer missing your kiss
It feels mysterious and so damn good
Something's changed, feel so strange
Swimming true a notion of games
Then suddenly is the sun
Maybe I had enough of you
Maybe I been tired dreaming of you
Maybe I gotta know your goodbye by now
Baby, I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dried somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
All cried out
My heart has finally walked away
It's gone from the scene of the crime
It's finally found the perfect place leaving it far behind
Baby, maybe I
Maybe I had enough of you
Maybe I been tired dreaming of you
Maybe I gotta know your goodbye by now
Baby, I couldn't live without you

Now when I think about you
My eyes are dried somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
Maybe I had enough of you
Maybe I been tired dreaming of you
Maybe I gotta know your goodbye by now
Baby, I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dried somehow
Maybe I had enough of you
Maybe I been tired dreaming of you
Baby, I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dried somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
Maybe I had enough of you
Maybe I
