Wrapped In Silk

Alice Cooper

Where did I see those eyes?
Why do I feel your heat?
How do I know your name?
When did we ever meet?
Did you just pass me by?
When did I smell your scent?
I followed you from behind
Everywhere you went
My, my, my, my, my
You should be wrapped in silk
You should be bathed in white
You should be wrapped in silk
I'll make that dream come true tonight
Yes, tonight
Yes, tonight
Yes, tonight
Tonight's the night
How did you see my face?
When could you feel the knife?
Was it your final thought
The moment I took your life?
But just when your heartbeat failed
Were you just filled with fright?
Were you in dark despair?
Did you see the holy light?
My, my, my, my, my
You should be wrapped in silk
You should be bathed in white
You should be wrapped in silk
I'll make that dream come true tonight
Wrapped in silk
Dressed in white
Bathed in milk
I'll make that dream come true tonight
Yes, tonight
Yes, tonight
Tonight?s the night
I'll turn off your lights
Turn off your lights

Where did you get that skin?
I've never seen such teeth
It covers up all your [Incomprehensible]
I wonder what's underneath
Did you just pass me by?
When did I smell your scent?
I followed you from behind
Everywhere you went
My, my, my, my, my
You should be wrapped in silk
You should be bathed in white
You should be wrapped in silk
I'll make that dream come true tonight
Wrapped in silk
Dressed in white
Bathed in milk
I'll make that dream come true tonight
Yes, tonight
Yes, tonight
Tonight?s the night
I'll turn off your lights
Turn off your lights
