Drown (Acoustic Version)

Citizen

I'll sleep outside,
bury myself on a winter night.
I'll let you do the things you want to,
I'd rather die alone if I have to.
If you don't mind I think I'll stay at home tonight.
My resolution says the things that I've been trying to,
that I'm dying to.

So shut my eyes,
and take my life.
Sit alone and drown again.

And I'd like to take you up for taking me down.
And I'd like to take you up for taking me down.

And I'd love to kill the mood to stay in solitude.
It gets hard to see trough,
to stay in solitude.

So shut my eyes,
and take my life,
Sit alone and drown again.

So shut my eyes,
and take my life,
Sit alone and drown again.

Lyrics submitted by Anna Enora.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/