

Vessel

Upon This Dawning

So close your eyes and take a deep breath
They are listening
Open your mouth and throw out everything you have to say
You know you're not alone
We'll all be close to you
And godforsaken places will see the sunlight in your eyes We'll be your voice
They're an unsinkable vessel, but we are the ocean
We will be your voice, we will be your voice
They are a vessel, but we are the ocean Everyday is so precious, everyday is so precious Don't let the silence fill the room, so please shout the truth We just want a better world, where everyone knows how to love
And love is our only weapon, our only weapon We'll be your voice, we'll be your voice
We will be your voice
We are the messengers We'll be your voice, we'll be your voice
We will be your voice
We are the messengers They are an unsinkable vessel, they are an unsinkable vessel
