Aaron David

Here, time is like a lover run off with another
Someone, tell me this is made up, tell me I can wake up
Please wake up

Can you hear it now, someone singingâ€¦

Oh, when youâ€™re out in the cold on your own
When you feel like you're standing alone
And thereâ€™s nobody else, just know
Iâ€™ll be here by your side â€˜til the end
We can kindle the fire again
Kindle the fire again

Hope, hope is like a secret, I hope that I can keep it
Come back, back to where we started, back to where the light is Brightest

I can see it now, heaven singingâ€¦

Oh, when youâ€™re out in the cold on your own
When you feel like youâ€™re standing alone
And thereâ€™s nobody else, just know
Iâ€™ll be here by your side â€˜til the end
We can kindle the fire again
Kindle the fire again

Oh, when youâ€™re feeling the cracks in your heart
When it looks like youâ€™re falling apart
I can hold, I will hold you
Oh, when youâ€™re feeling the aches in your bones
When you look but you canâ€™t find your home
Donâ€™t give up, donâ€™t give in, donâ€™t let go

When youâ€™re out in the cold on your own
When you feel like youâ€™re standing alone
And thereâ€™s nobody else, just know
Iâ€™ll be here by your side â€˜til the end
We can kindle the fire again
Kindle the fire again
