Wake Up Call

Keke Palmer

Just giving you a wake up callI'm giving you a wake up call
Wake up, wake up
Just to say I love you and Im thinkin of you
Let you know that youve got friendsIm giving you a wake up call
Wake up, wake up
It's a beautiful day, don't let it slip away
And live it like it's the first day of the rest of your lifeJust stoppin by to let you know what's up
Give you a call to see what youre doin
Got somewhere to go today?
Wanted to know if you were comin to have fun with meI know you got some plans
Or we can hang with friends
Just wanna chill with you
So what you gonna do? Baby, it's up to youI'm giving you a wake up call
Wake up, wake up
Just to say I love you and Im thinkin of you
Let you know that youve got friendsIm giving you a wake up call
Wake up, wake up
It's a beautiful day, don't let it slip away
And live it like it's the first day of the rest of your life
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake upIt's me and my friends at the crib, eatin pizza
Coolin it down while we watchin movies
Don't need no moms and dads, we got it covered
Cause we know exactly what we're doinYou don't wanna miss out
Hangin home alone
While we sitting here havin a party
You know the location, so here's my invitationI'm giving you a wake up call
Wake up, wake up
Just to say I love you and Im thinkin of you
Let you know that youve got friendsIm giving you a wake up call
Wake up, wake up
It's a beautiful day, don't let it slip away
And live it like it's the first day of the rest of your life
Wake up, wake upYeah, yeah, you know it's party time, all hatin' left behind
It's the party of the year, I'm so glad it's mine
Ladies ride through, fellas come too
You see the videos, you know what Im bout to doSet the roof on fire, got them built on wires
Got you singing like the Harlem Boys Church Choir
Yeah, you know whats up, I see you gettin buck

But before we got it started you gotta wake upI'm giving you a wake up call
Wake up, wake up
Just to say I love you and Im thinkin of you
Let you know that youve got friendsIm giving you a wake up call
Wake up, wake up
It's a beautiful day, don't let it slip away
And live it like it's the first day of the rest of your life
Wake up, wake upYeah, yeah
I'm giving you a wake up call, yeah
Wake up, wake up
