Whole Heart

Rachel Platten

There's so much I don't know about you and I'm dying to Tackle the recent obstacle that's keeping me from you
We were at the beach and you were hiding on your phone
You said nothing's wrong, but something's wrong
You know my insecurities are always there and loud
And I can show my weaknesses, it's something to be proud
God, it'd be so beautiful to see that side of you
All the messy parts, every part
Your whole, whole heart
Hey
So come on, baby, open up
I swear you won't be sorry
Hey
You know I never ever judge
I swear you won't be sorry
Ooh, nah nah nah, ooh, nah nah nah
I want your whole, whole heart
Give me that ooh, nah nah nah, ooh, nah nah nah
I want your whole, whole heart, lay it on meThere's something in your head that you can't seem to get around
Ghosts of past relationships that only let you down
Tell me all your darkest secrets, baby, try me out
I'll walk you through, just me and youYou doubt I could be your safety net
What now? Why don't you just love me?
And why doubt all all of my intentions?
You got my attention, my whole, whole heart
Hey
So come on, baby, open up
I swear you won't be sorry
Hey
You know I never ever judge
I swear you won't be sorry
Ooh, nah nah nah, ooh, nah nah nah
I want your whole, whole heart
Give me that ooh, nah nah nah, ooh, nah nah nah
I want your whole, whole heart, lay it on meYou doubt I could be your safety net
What now? Why don't you just love me?
And why doubt all all of my intentions?
You got my attention, my whole, whole heart
So come on, baby, open up

You know I never ever judge
I swear you won't be sorryHey
So come on, baby, open up
I swear you won't be sorry
Hey
You know I never ever judge
I swear you won't be sorry
Ooh, nah nah nah, ooh, nah nah nah
I want your whole, whole heart
Give me that ooh, nah nah nah, ooh, nah nah nah
I want your whole, whole heart, lay it on meWhole, whole heart
I want your whole, whole heart
