

Fair-Weather Friend

Stars In Stereo

What you stand for is everything
What you fall for is your fault
And all that's lying in between is a failed attempt in belief
When you said you were ride or die
Did you ever really pick a side
And while your friends are suffering
They'll find what you've been covering
You're no better than what you abandon
Whoa
Your lies only make you lie
Whoa
Your fear never left your side
Whoa
A front to hide a knife behind
Whoa
You're a fair weather friend of mine
Can you look me in the eyes
Can you save what you left behind
With a conscience long let go
Could you be the one I used to know
Lost the fight worth dying for
But we're never gonna lose the war
While we're making history
You tear us down for your story
On the front line there's no time for glory
Whoa
Your lies only make you lie
Whoa
Your fear never left your side
Whoa
A front to hide a knife behind
Whoa
You're a fair weather friend of mine
Instrumental + Bec Whoa-uh-oh-ing
Whoa
Your lies only make you lie
Whoa
Your fear never left your side
Whoa

A front to hide a knife behind

Whoa

You're a fair weather friend of mine

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>