

Unhinged

Eels

You need help, baby, you've come unhinged
It's clear to everybody, you're on the fringe
Thought I'd stand till I die
But the twinkle in your eye is gone And now all that's left is a mean old girl Behind her crazy eyes We were good together, as good as it gets
I only wanted to help you from the day we met
Now I'm sleeping on the couch for months on end
You were more than my girl, you were my best friend All that's left is a mean old girl
Behind her crazy eyes
