

Fall From Grace

State of the Union

I choose to be his confidant
And to keep him from the fire
I choose to be quietly discreet
 If that is his desire
I touch with gossamer wings
 To be quiet around you
 There is so much goin' on
 You could easily
 Wake up with a stranger
It's not somethin' else you plan
 One night in a world of pain
 And you finally understand
 Not all the king's horses
 Not all the king's men
 Could put it back together
You said you wouldn't do this for very long
The applause from it all is so defining
 Well it bounces off the wall at you
 When the miracle is happening
 High priestess
She's the keeper of the peace in this
 Twice as much, intensified
 Who other people will do
 To get, this
 (High)
It's not somethin' else you plan
 One night in a world of pain
 And you finally understand
 Not all the king's horses
 Not all the king's men
 Could put it back together
And now alone in my room as it all begins again
 (As it all begins again)
Was I so wrong, why am I always so intense?
 (Always so intense)
In this same place I sit, the same place as before
 Oh I came all the way here just to Watch you walk out that door
 I didn't ask when you shook your head

I always accepted what you said as the truth
And the truth only
Well it's not enough that you depend on me
And it's not enough that you say you love me
It's not enough to just save face
Because sometimes
You just fall from grace
Sometimes
You just fall from grace
Maybe I am calmer now
Maybe things are fine
Maybe I made the whole thing up
Maybe it isn't a lie
Maybe the reason I say these things is to bring you back alive
Ooh maybe I fought this long and this hard just to Make sure you survive, Oh
Just to make sure you survive

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>