I As I Can See

A Telemetry

transcend all thoughts of giving in detach the misery
and fate rides round again

dispatch the feelers
mitigating cause
unlatch a moment and
analyze the fog

I as I can see
the storm begins to clear
I as I can see
the battles end is near

contend with debate
that drives you mad
exact attention
strive not to be had

relaxed illusions
cripple all the need recapture reality and visualize the deed

I as I can see
I as I can see
the battles end is near

relying on a cosmic quake anticipating no escape
I sprawl out on the floor
such a valued road
I cling to a wing
and sacrifice the prayer that never seems to flow and mediate my fear
as a challenge lets me go

I as I can see
I as I can see
