

Suckerlove

Kate Havnevik

We both know there's nothing more
To be said now, the spark has gone
The vultures waiting with the devil smile
Our love forsaken concealed in lies

Suckerlove, baby

It is not worth keeping

So try another one

Suckerlove, baby

It is not worth fighting

So try another one

We shared fears and our delights
Climbed icy mountains, committed crimes

Now I know I've been as bad as you
So boy, let's face it, now we are through

Suckerlove, baby

It is not worth keeping

So try another one

Suckerlove, baby

It is not worth fighting

So try another, try another

Suckerlove, baby

It is not worth keeping

So try another one

Suckerlove, baby

It is not worth fighting

So try another, try another

Try another

Try another love, love
