

I Ain't Hurtin' Nobody But Me

Keith Anderson

You'll find me here from happy hour to closin' time
The jukebox is playin' the same old song a hundred times
Bartender looks at me with the saddest eyes
When I say keep 'em comin', till I'm stumblin'
The way you did last night
I ain't hurtin' nobody but me
Ain't no one wonderin' when I'm comin' home
Ain't nowhere I gotta be
The only heart I'm breakin' is the broken one inside of me
So take my keys and pour my drink
But let me be 'cause I ain't hurtin' nobody but me
There was a time, so many times, I caused her pain
I saw her cry but I closed my eyes and I wouldn't change
And I became all those things that now I hate
I swore I'd never hurt another since the day she left
I ain't hurtin' nobody but me
Ain't no one wonderin' when I'm comin' home
Ain't nowhere I gotta be
The only heart I'm breakin' is the broken one inside of me
So take my keys and pour my drink
But let me be 'cause I ain't hurtin' nobody but me
I ain't hurtin' nobody but me
