From Nowhere

CROLL, Dan

Every now and then I fall
Every now and then I lose control
In your eyes I see your thoughts surrounding me
And I've a little bit of thought for you'Cause every now and then I fall a bit behind
Every time I stare into your eyes
'Cause every now and then I fall a bit behind
Every time I stare into your eyesYour thrills I find
It's not hard to be left behind
So I'll run, you'll hide
We know better than to stay outsideYou're cold and your awake
You said I should have never of stayed
But there's no better place for me'Cause every now and then I fall a bit behind
Every time I stare into your eyes
'Cause every now and then I fall a bit behind
Every time I stare into your eyes'Cause every now and then I fall a bit behind
Every time I stare into your eyes
'Cause every now and then I fall a bit behind
Every time I stare into your eyesEvery time I stare into your eyes
Every time I stare into your eyes
Every time I stare into your eyes
