

Hanging Around

Basement

Hanging around for a sound,
Or a light to guide my sight,
Far away from the ground.
Open my mind to find,
That I must have lost the cost,
While waiting in line. Give me the news, I'll be alright. Help me be me away from you.
Sign posts, mind flows;
It's overdue.
Find me a sign for to shine,
And pretend to comprehend,
Why I wasted my time.
Hand me a clue I can lose,
And mistake for my escape,
From the old and the new.
Man or boy, black or blue. Help me be me away from you.
Sign posts, mind flows;
It's overdue.
