Ritzville

Mudhoney

Wear my heart on my sleeve
And my head on the curb
Got a sign on my cell that reads "do not disturb"Fell asleep in a blizzard sometime last night
Woke up alone, freezing and whiteHey, hey mister chicken where have you been Hunting for trophies among the evergreensGoing back to ritzville
Don't ask why
Going back to ritzville
Don't ask why
Going back to ritzville
Don't ask why
It's a good a place as any to go and die
It's a good a place as any to go and dieHave you heard of my girl, I mean the other day?
Took her out with the sheriff, had a roll in the hay
In a cell stewing over some bum rap
I say off my girl, along with that sap
They say the headless chickens are taking over
They say I lost mine over a four leaf cloverGoing back to ritzville
Don't ask why
Going back to ritzville
Don't ask why
Going back to ritzville
Don't ask why
It's a good a place as any to go and die
It's a good a place as any to go and dieThey say you always return to the scene of your crime
Well I'm taking the scene, but I'm not sure if it's mineGoing back to ritzville
Don't ask why
Going back to ritzville
Don't ask why
Going back to ritzville
Don't ask why
It's a good a place as any to go and die
It's a good a place as any to go and dieGoing back to ritzville
Don't ask why
Going back to ritzville
Don't ask why
Going back to ritzville
Don't ask why
It's a good a place as any to go and die
It's a good a place as any to go and die
