Good Times

Ray Bonneville

Look over there what's that I see
Is that her on the way back home do my eyes see??
We had a falling out the night before she said she was goin' away
She put on a coat, walked to the door, what was I to sayI said please think about the good time we had
I said please think about the good times not the badI spent yesterday wondering aimlessly, my head down I was blue
I couldn't believe it happened to me, I cried like a fool
Who could say and do every right thing when it comes to love
Who don't stumble every once and awhile tell me whose above it
Please think about the good time we had
I said please think about the good times not the badYou know what I'm talking about, don't it happen to everyone
It carve a hole in your heart like a bullet from a gun
What's that sound, what's that I hear
Is that a key unlocking the door or is there something wrong with my ear
Please think about the good time we had
I said please think about the good times not the badPlease think about the good time we had
Please think about the good times not the bad
