Who I Am

Lifelines

I wanna know all about it
How I was wrong and you can't it
Even though you were the one
Who shopped in another bed
Bed of another man
Funny how the story goes
Do you feel no remorse for everything you put us both through
I can't seem to understand but I guess that I don't have to
You said that this time would be different
And you lied right to my face
I won't believe that this was all a waste
I gotta do what I gotta do
Hope it's clear what I'm saying
I know it's hard to reach the devil inside
But now I can finally breathe without you
I'm too scared of ever letting go
I can't help feeling like I'm losing control
Why can't I ever have my peace of mind
Well I'm trying to get ahold of myself
And it kills me
You said that this time would be different and you lied right to my face
I won't believe that this was all a waste
I gotta do what I gotta do
Hope it's clear what I'm saying
I know it's hard to reach the devil inside
Maybe next time you'll think before crossing that line
And now you're all alone in a heart break city and I have no regrets
I hope it kills you to remember
If it meant a thing to you at all please let me know
It probably kills you to remember
