Let Him Run

Night Ranger

Strap on your safety belt
Blazin' in the sky
Thinkin' of nothin'
No disguise
What happened to the one
The one you thought you knew?
Did he just take away
What is missin' in you?
Let him run
Till he sees what he has done
Let him go
Havin' all his fun
Mmm, let him run
Take off your rocket shoes
And the straps from your wings
Wishin' for miracles
Hear the young boys sing
What will you say to him
When he's back at your door?
Got no time for users
I don't need you anymore
Let him run
Till he sees what he has done
Let him go
Havin' all his fun
Let him cry
See the tears fall from his eyes
Let him run
Run, run, run, run, run
Oh, run now, oh
