Bill Fay

Listen now, listen now
To the high wind blowing
Through the tree
Listen now, listen now
All in between,
They got to fold
To make way,
For the little baby shoes Hear the, hear the
Heart the wind
Blow through the trees
Where it blows,
Oh where it blows
No one knows
Howling wind
Hear the, hear the
Heart the wind
Blow through the trees.
