

Beautiful

The Dreaming

Cause you are beautiful but your soul is cold and dead
 Angelic but a demon fills your head
 The heaven that you promised life could be
Was a deadly blended hell and ecstasy
God, you are so beautiful
 To diamonds in your eyes
I know you're so ugly
 I know you're so ugly on the inside
 I know you're so ugly
Beautiful but ugly on the inside (on the inside)
You are beautiful but ice runs through your veins
 Slowly draining all my life away
 Perfection in a shell devoid of life
Cause you leave a trail of broken dreams behind
