Popularity

Jonezetta

They got the raddest hooks, they got the dopest looks And when they're misunderstood it's even better And they all agree the future ends with me

On their computer screens like they evenMatter to the words we sing or feel apart in our melodies If all you have is yourself, you're never going to need anyone elsePopularity, do you think it's scary?

Everybody's talking with their own opinion

Popularity, it's a lot to carry

I'll fall asleep to you screaming in my brain

My brain, my brainFloat into a room, I feel the attitude

When I'm all alone it's even better

Try drops a line, we all fall right in time

And when you sing along, that's when we know youMatter to the words we sing or feel apart in our melodies If all we have is ourselves, you're never going to need anyone elsePopularity, do you think it's scary?

Everybody's talking with their own opinion

Popularity, it's a lot to carry

I'll fall asleep to you screaming in my brainPopularity, do you think it's scary?

Everybody's talking with their own opinion

Popularity, it's a lot to carry

I wake up to you screamingPopularity, I keep on keeping

But everyone's dying for their own opinion

Popularity, yeah, I think it's scary

I'll fall asleep to you screaming at my brain

My brain, my brain, my brain, my brain
