Michelle (Seashell)

Siiga

Well I've been living by the sea
Been dreaming on the shore
Listening to the shells
I hear you sing
Your ocean lullaby

Michelle a siren from the tide
The endless water lies
Reflecting from her eyes
She felt me sink so low

You sail away your love flows
But your heart is mine
You sail away I follow
Cos your heart is mine

She left the castle where she lay
Her bucket and spade
Were lying by the gate
I watched them fade beneath the waves

Her name was written in the sand
Michelle from Coral Bay
I wish she coulda stayed
I hope she'll turn the tide some day

Michelle from Coral Bay
Farewell
