Little Girl

The Daylights

Are you pacing back and forth? have you wished for better days?
have you ever loved before? that's not far away
i think you'll find a good life, i think you'll find a new love.don't back down, little girl, cause you're gonna be alright, step on out, it's a wide wide world
and you're gonna be alright you're a star
you'll do fine
and you're gonna be alright
and you're gonna be alrightyou gonna change the world some day, but you wonder where to start fillin' up the vacant spaces, just being who you are.
i know you've got it in you there's nothing that you can't doooohhh, don't back down little girl, cause you're gonna be alright,
step on out it's a wide wide world
and you're gonna be alright
you're a star
and you're gonna be alrighteven when they tell you that it can't be done it's not even possible to live a dream without altogether changing but keep on don't stop keep believin' in the faith, they'll be help along the wayhey don't back down little girl
and you're gonna be alright cause you're a star
and you're gonna be alright
you're gonna be alright
