Don't Fall In Love

Danko Jones

Please don't look around for anybody else
Why don't you concentrate on yourself
Someone's gotta say that it's okay to feel alone
You're not a freak you dont need helpEverybody wants to fall in love, not me
Everybody wants to fall in love, not meAnd when the radio
Plays a love song
Something that you should know
They're all wrongEverybody wants to fall in love, not me
Everybody wants to fall in love, not me
Everybody wants to fall in love, not me
Everybody wants to fall in love, not meAll your friends got someone else they hang out with
And now you want your someone else too
But to me it all seems that they breakup just to makeup
They got nothing to doSo why don't you consider just eliminate it
All the fuzz and fighting around
I'm not trying to tell ya what to do
Just wanna pick you up 'cause you're downHeres something they're never gonna tell ya
I kinda figured it out
As much as people wanna love ya
Theyll always wanna try to bring you downEverybody wants to fall in love, not me
Everybody wants to fall in love, not meAnd when the radio
Plays a love song
Something that you should know
They're all wrongEverybody wants to fall in love, not me
Everybody wants to fall in love, not me
Everybody wants to fall in love, not me
Everybody wants to fall in love, not meI'm not gonna fall for it
