

Forgot To Laugh

Bridgit Mendler

When I read your face its like a screen door
I can see right through your heart's a window Why you got to treat me like a bimbo?
The sticks are out when you don't care anymore
You make it so easy, you're sweet like a Reese's pieces but I promise, if you leave me you'll be crawling on your knees So if you go it's a joke
If you drive away, hope you get a flat tire, get stranded if it's good bye today, know you're leaving here empty handed
'Cause I got my own life and you're just a punch line
if you go,
You're a joke,
I forgot to laugh
You don't like it when I check your iPhone
I don't even get my own ringtone
When you're heading out with all your best bros
You don't wanna tell me where you guys go You say that I'm needy, like a kid needs Reese's pieces
But I promise, if you leave me you'll be running back to me at my door what a joke
If you drive away, hope you get a flat tire, get stranded
if it's good bye today, know you're leaving here empty handed
'Cause I got my own life and you're just a punch line
if you go,
You're a joke,
I forgot to laugh
So if you're sayin' "peace,bye" like you're so over me Tryin' to sting like a bee then i gotta laugh you're more like a jockey Or a cute little bunny think that youre funny I forgot to laugh, laugh like a diamond in a mountain of coal, I'm the girl that guys can't find anymore

If you drive away, hope you get a flat tire, get stranded
if it's good bye today, know you're leaving here empty handed
'Cause I got my own life and you're just a punch line
if you go,
You're a joke,
I forgot to laugh
If you drive away, hope you get a flat tire, get stranded
if it's good bye today, know you're leaving here empty handed
'Cause I got my own life and you're just a punch line
if you go,
You're a joke,
I forgot to laugh
Na na na na na
I forgot to laugh
