Snowsuit Sound

Sloan

Pushed off of the silver swings, I got my braces full of sand
When all I ever wanted to do was hold on to your hand
Lost you once, I never had a second chance
Would you have changed your mind with a second glance?I think I'll take you down now, take you down from that shelf
Let you be and set you free instead of keepin' you for myself
I guess it'll always be the same and it might be just as well
Let you think, fill your sink, I've already smashed that shellYour the sizzleteen, and you're older than me
I'm just walkin' around, I made that snowsuit sound
It's not up to me now, la laPushed off of the silver swings, I got my braces full of sand
Never got to tell you that I was your greatest fan
