

I Have a Dream

Karl Valentine

Some things seem to slip our minds,
Don't you ask me why
Like war, and hate, and Watergate,
These memories have died

Take me back, oh take me back to 1963
Some where we got off the track after John F. Kennedy

I don't know how it's going to be
Maybe you tell me,
Now I have a dream it's going to change
Said Martin King
Can you feel it now growing stronger, can you feel it now?

We live inside our sheltered lives
Pretending not to see
That we have gone to far this time
It's every where I see

Now do I have to spell it out
It's right on your T.V.
Planet earth is on a course
That's much to frightening

I don't know how it's going to be
Maybe you tell me,
Now I have a dream it's going to change
Said Martin King
Can you feel it now growing stronger, can you feel it now?

Karl Valentine Â© 1990

Lyrics submitted by Karl Valentine.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>